AMC Supplement 1
to AR 381-10

18 June 1997

Military Intelligence

U.S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

This supplement may be further supplemented by AMC major subordinate commands (including subordinate installations and activities) and installations and activities reporting directly to Headquarters, AMC as required. Two copies of each supplement will be furnished to the Commander, AMC, ATTN: AMCMI and ATTN: AMCIG, and one copy to the AMC Security Support Division (SSD), ATTN: AMXMI-SD, Fort Gillem, GA 30050-5000.

AR 381-10, 1 July 1984, is supplemented as follows:

Page 1-1, paragraph A.1. Add the following at the end:

Within AMC, these procedures apply to all major subordinate command (MSC) and separate reporting activity (SRA) intelligence and security offices, installation security offices, and other installation and activity offices with personnel security responsibilities. Provisions of this regulation apply to all personnel assigned to an intelligence and security office, to include intelligence specialists/assistants, security specialists/assistants, the support staff, and all contractors and consultants.

The implementation of this regulation is the responsibility of the AMC Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence.

Within AMC, all applicable employees will review these procedures annually. At a minimum, procedures 1 through 4 and 14 and 15 will be reviewed. Each affected employee must sign a training attendance roster, verifying he/she was present at intelligence oversight training. This roster will be filed with other training records. The annual review will be conducted in December of each calendar year. As part of the annual review, files, including electronic files, will be inspected to ensure that no information has been improperly collected or retained. By 15 January each year, each MSC/SRA Senior Intelligence Officer (SIO) will report the results of their annual

Intelligence Oversight (IO) training and files review to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCFI. Report will confirm that all appropriate personnel have attended AR 381-10 familiarization training; that all files, including electronic files, were reviewed for compliance with AR 381-10, and include the results of that review, including a description of any violations of AR 381-10 and a discussion of whether these violations were properly reported. Report will contain the following statement, "I certify that all appropriate (specify organization) personnel have received AR 381-10 familiarization training within the last year. All files, including electronic files have been reviewed and are free of materials prohibited by AR 381-10 (except as noted below)."

All reports of questionable activity will be forwarded to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCFI, with an information copy to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCFI.

Within AMC, the AMC Inspector General has the inspection responsibility for IO.

The proponent of this regulation is the United States Army Materiel Command. Users are invited to send comments and suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) to the Commander, HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCMI, 5001 Eisenhower Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22333-0001.
